

Although research found no evidence that child labor exists in Anguilla, in 2019 the government made no advancement in efforts to prevent the worst forms of child labor. The law does not prohibit the involvement of children in illicit activities, including the production and trafficking of drugs. In addition, the minimum ages for work and hazardous work do not meet international standards and Anguilla lacks a list of prohibited hazardous occupations and activities for children.

I. PREVALENCE AND SECTORAL DISTRIBUTION OF CHILD LABOR

Research found no evidence that child labor exists in Anguilla. (1-3) Table 1 provides one key indicator on children's education in Anguilla. Data on other key indicators on children's work are not available from the sources used in this report. (2,4)

Table 1. Statistics on Children's Work and Education

Children	Age	Percent
Primary Completion Rate (%)		119.5

Source for primary completion rate: Data from 2011, published by UNESCO Institute for Statistics, 2020. (4)
All other data were unavailable from International Labor Organization's analysis, 2020. (2)

Based on a review of available information, Table 2 provides an overview of children's work by sector and activity.

II. LEGAL FRAMEWORK FOR CHILD LABOR

British Overseas Territories (BOTs) are under the jurisdiction and sovereignty of the United Kingdom (UK), but they are not constitutionally part of the UK. They are self-governing, except in the areas of foreign affairs and defense. (5) Domestic UK law does not generally apply unless explicitly extended to BOTs. (5) Under Article 35(4) of the ILO Constitution, when the UK ratifies a Convention, the Territory must consider if it will accept the Convention. If the Convention is accepted, it is considered applicable to that territory. (5) The following Conventions have been extended to Anguilla. Anguilla has accepted one of them (Table 2). (5)

Table 2. Ratification of International Conventions on Child Labor

Convention	Ratification
 ILO C. 138, Minimum Age
 ILO C. 182, Worst Forms of Child Labor
 UN CRC	✓
 UN CRC Optional Protocol on Armed Conflict
 UN CRC Optional Protocol on the Sale of Children, Child Prostitution and Child Pornography
 Palermo Protocol on Trafficking in Persons

The Government of Anguilla has established laws and regulations related to child labor (Table 3). However, gaps exist in Anguilla's legal framework to adequately protect children from the worst forms of child labor, including the minimum age for work.

Table 3. Laws and Regulations on Child Labor

Standard	Meets International Standards	Age	Legislation
Minimum Age for Work	No	12	Articles 1 and 3–4 of the Employment of Women, Young Persons and Children Act; Articles 1–2 of the Employment of Children (Restriction) Act (6,7)
Minimum Age for Hazardous Work	No	14	Articles 1 and 3–4 of the Employment of Women, Young Persons and Children Act; Articles 1–2 of the Employment of Children (Restriction) Act (6,7)
Identification of Hazardous Occupations or Activities Prohibited for Children	No		Article 6 of the Employment of Women, Young Persons and Children Act (6)
Prohibition of Forced Labor	Yes		Chapter 1, Section 4 of the Constitution Order; Article 242 Criminal Code (8,9)

Prohibition of Compulsory Recruitment of Children by (State) Military	N/A*†
Prohibition of Military Recruitment by Non-state Armed Groups	No
Compulsory Education Age	Yes	17	Article 117 of the Education Act (10)
Free Public Education	Yes		Article 106 of the Education Act (10)

* No conscription (11)

† No standing military (11)

The minimum work age of 12 does not meet international standards. The minimum age of 14 for hazardous work also does not meet international standards as it only applies to industrial undertakings, transportation of passengers or goods by roads or rail, and work on ships. (6,7) However, there is a prohibition of night work for children under age 16 in manufacturing of raw sugar, and a prohibition of night work in other industrial undertakings for children under age 18. (6) In addition, Anguilla does not prohibit the use of children in illicit activities, including the production and trafficking of drugs. (8,12,13) As the minimum age for work is lower than the compulsory education age, children may be encouraged to leave school before the completion of compulsory education. (7,10)

III. ENFORCEMENT OF LAWS ON CHILD LABOR

As there is no evidence of a problem, there appears to be no need for enforcement actions to address child labor, including its worst forms. However, the UK government has established relevant institutional mechanisms for the enforcement of laws and regulations on child labor in Anguilla (Table 4).

Table 4. Agencies Responsible for Child Labor Law Enforcement

Organization/Agency	Role
Department of Labor of the Ministry of Finance, Economic Development, Investments, and Tourism	Enforces child labor laws through the Labor Commissioner, pursuant to the Employment of Children (Restriction) Act. (7,14)
Department of Social Development of the Ministry of Social Development	Safeguards the well-being of children and investigates reports of child abuse. (15)
Royal Anguilla Police Force	Investigates child protection cases. (15,16)

IV. COORDINATION OF GOVERNMENT EFFORTS ON CHILD LABOR

As there is no evidence of a problem, there appears to be no need for mechanisms to coordinate efforts to address child labor. However, the Government of Anguilla has established a mechanism to coordinate its efforts to address child labor (Table 5).

Table 5. Key Mechanisms to Coordinate Government Efforts on Child Labor

Coordinating Body	Role & Description
Ministry of Social Development	Implements child protection efforts and ensures that Anguilla complies with the Conventions on the Rights of the Child. (15)

V. GOVERNMENT POLICIES ON CHILD LABOR

As there is no evidence of a problem, there appears to be no need for policies to address child labor. However, the Government of Anguilla has established the Child Protection National Action Plan, Safeguarding and Child Protection Protocols and Procedures, and an Inter-Agency Child Protection Protocol. (17-19) All of these policies may contribute to the prevention of child labor.

VI. SOCIAL PROGRAMS TO ADDRESS CHILD LABOR

As there is no evidence of a problem, there appears to be no need for programs to address child labor. However, the Government of Anguilla has established the Safeguarding Children in Anguilla Project and the Child Safeguarding in the Overseas Territories Regional Project, which may contribute to the prevention of child labor. (20)

VII. SUGGESTED GOVERNMENT ACTIONS TO ELIMINATE CHILD LABOR

Based on the reporting above, suggested actions are identified that would advance the continued prevention of child labor in Anguilla (Table 6).
